

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost we must thank our advertisers who came forward so readily to support the magazine. Without their assistance this production would not have been possible. Our thanks are also due to the contributors of articles and cartoons, who were again under a lot of pressure to produce their items on time. Finally thanks to the 3 TF PR Officer for photographs, and to the many individual members of the Battalion who so freely assisted with their private photo collections. All your efforts are very much appreciated.
