AUSTRALIAN RULES

CAPT R. A. HILL

INTER UNIT

Though only a short season the Battalion put together a good team this year and once again fought out the Grand Final with 1 RAR. The side fought hard but were beaten by 1 RAR who must be congratulated on their win.

The coach set high standards which all players strove hard to achieve. There is no doubt individual skills improved in 1984.

Those players who represented 2/4 RAR during the season, and those who turned up at training sessions but did not make the team are to be commended as are the willing band of officials who supported the squad.

James Weaver is to be congratulated on being named joint player of the series.

I look forward to 1985, when with similar application as this year I am sure we can go "one better".

INTER COY

Inter Coy Australian Rules was played in a split round. Highlights included the B v ADMIN game where players had to wait for the tide to change to play and the C v B game that C Coy won with a scratch team.

The end results were:

1. A Coy
2. C Coy
3. D Coy
4. SPT Coy
5. ADMIN Coy
6. B Coy.

The standard of play was good and games fiercely contested.

Editors Note: It has been confirmed that a certain Collingwood supporter (R.A.H.) firmly believes Carlton's win over the 'Woods' (Rnd 2) was just a 'flash in the pan'.

Lcpl Hill punches clear.
