271. PRIVATE VEHICLE REGISTRATION

1. Owners of private vehicles are to take note, that if any of the following occurred since the 25 April 66, the Regt Police Section should be notified forthwith.

2. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action being taken.

Vehicle Disposed of Vehicle Purchased
 Re-registered, expiry date
 Change of Insurance Company
 Change of Registration Number.

272. CHARGE AND OFFENCE REPORTS

1. The JAG has ruled (JAG 47/65) that in drawing of charges of absence without leave the additional particulars showing the time absent as a total of days, hours, and minutes, should be omitted. This ruling has been occasioned by a number of charges showing an error in the total, resulting in an ambiguity with consequent quashing.

2. In AAF A4 in the section provided for names of witnesses, there should be no mention of the word "Documentary" in cases where the evidence is in the form of a statement, e.g. a RMP report, the name etc., of the person making the statement should be shown as the witness.

3. Units should ensure that AAF A4 are correctly distributed to:-

- a. CARO, Melbourne, Australia.
- b. APAC, Melbourne, Australia.
- c. HQ AAF FARLEF, Singapore
- d. Unit File
- e. Formation Headquarters, eg. HQ 28 COM EL Inf Bde.

(ARO 50/65).

273. TRUCKS $\frac{1}{2}$ TON AND $\frac{3}{4}$ TON 4x4 LANDROVER (ALL MARKS) FIRE HAZARD.
PETROL FILLER CAPS AND BATTERIES

1. To minimise the danger of fire caused by leaking petrol filler caps, a new type is now being fitted to new production Land Rovers. This type of filler cap is unsuitable for fitting to existing vehicles and the design of a suitable cap for these is under active investigation.

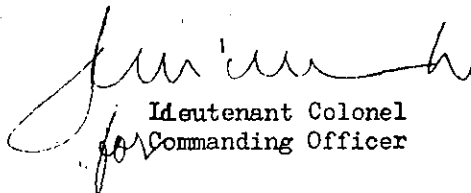

2. Until a suitable cap becomes available, particular attention must be paid to the securing of filler caps and the serviceability of filler cap washers. Petrol filler cap washers are to be inspected now, and at each unit B Vehicle Inspection. If these are found to be unserviceable they are to be replaced by the type of washer specified in EME I Wheeled Vehicles Q 027 (FARELF) Local Mod Instr No 5 Issue I.

3. Special care is to be taken to ensure that the filler cap is fully secured: the onset of resistance must not necessarily be taken as a sign that the cap has been fully closed.

4. Batteries carried in FFR vehicles between the two front seats must be properly secured in the battery containers. The terminals must be secured in order to avoid short circuits which could ignite petrol vapour from leaking filler caps. See EME I Wheeled Vehicle Q 027 (FARELF) Local Mod Instrs Nos 2 and 3.

5. Sub units are to ensure that all ranks are aware of these hazards and that the steps outlined above are taken to overcome them.

- d. Maj Gen Dato' Ibrahim bin Ismail, Director of Operations, East Malaysia, Rifle Range Road, Kuala Lumpur

I was hoping to visit your battalion before the battalion left Sarawak but unfortunately due to my commitments in Kuala Lumpur I was unable to do so. I was going to thank you and your battalion personally for the sterling services which the battalion has rendered during the tour of duty in Sarawak.

I have been informed by Brigadier Ungku Nazaruddin and his staff and also by the 3rd Battalion, Royal Malaysian Regiment the full co-operation which you and your officers have given them to make the change-over a smooth and successful one. On my part I would like to say how much I appreciate all your co-operation and this gives a bright reflection on the relationship between the two forces.

Once again thank you very much and I wish you and your battalion the very best of luck for the future.

- e. 'H' Sqn 5th Royal Tank Regt, BFPO 628

It has been a tremendous pleasure working with 4 RAR. You have all been so kind and helpful to my detachment and to the Squadron in general that it has made our time here with you a very happy one.

In addition to matters that you know about, there has been a lot of minor "behind the scenes" assistance at all levels that has helped us enormously.

Many thanks for everything and very best wishes to all ranks. I hope we might meet up again some day.

Best wishes.
